Article 11: Amendments to the Constitution
Preamble

This shall be the DCU Anime and Manga Society Constitution correct as of November 15th 2018, in accordance to and in compliance with Dublin City University policy and Dublin City University Societies and Publications Committee policy.

The first draft was initiated by Lee Francis Licayan and any subsequent drafts by the Governing Executive Committee of the society alongside the rest of the membership of the society.

It is our desire that this constitution be thoroughly reviewed by the 2023-2024 Committee and membership. This is to account for most DCU courses being only three or four years long; therefore, the membership changes significantly in that short space of time. The personality of the society in 2023 may be different from the personality it had at the time of writing so it is our hope that this constitution is thoroughly scrutinised by the end of 2023.

“I do believe in the power of story. I believe that stories have an important role to play in the formation of human beings, that they can stimulate, amaze and inspire their listeners.”

— Hayao Miyazaki

Article 1 Establishment and Name

All previous Dublin City University Anime and Manga Society Constitutions are hereby revoked.

However, memberships, election results and policies adopted under previous Constitutions are not invalidated or made inoperable until their natural termination as a result of this revocation. In some instances, official names of positions have been changed [see ‘Definitions’ above] but the status of the holder remains until their natural termination.

The main interpreter of this constitution shall be the Governing Executive Committee.

1. The official name of that society shall be the ‘Anime and Manga Society’, officially abbreviated to “AMS”.

2. No individual or group outside the membership can be a representative of the views, opinions or policies of the society without prior agreement between the Committee and said individual or group.

   1. In the event of false representation the Committee shall request the group or individual to cease and desist their actions.
   2. In the event that the group or individual refuses and continues their false representation the Chairperson is mandated to file a formal report to the Dublin City University Societies Officer [or other DCU official where relevant].

Article 2 Aims and Objectives

1. The primary aim of the society shall be the appreciation and consumption of Japanese anime, manga as well as any other facets Japanese popular culture.

2. The development of friendships between individuals based on mutual interests of anime and manga.
3. The organisation of at least one society trip per academic year.

Article 3 Membership

1. Membership can only be conferred to students and staff of Dublin City University and to those who achieve ‘Honorary Membership’ [see Article 3.4].

2. Normal membership shall be obtained by paying the appropriate fee and by signing the Roll of Members.

   1. Normal membership shall only be valid from the day of payment until the beginning of the next academic year.
   2. No individual shall be refused membership on the grounds of any demographic characteristic.

3. Members agree to be bound by the rules of this constitution and by the Governing Executive Committee when joining the society. In the event that an individual from the membership violates society rules, that individual shall be held accountable by the Governing Executive Committee.

   1. The Committee has the right to revoke membership if the punishment corresponds to the offence. An individual with revoked membership shall not receive any refund on payments into the society prior to their expulsion.
   2. An individual may request readmission into the society after six months after membership revocation. The Committee shall adhere to Article 4.3.

4. Honorary Membership can be conferred onto normal members of the society who shall no longer be attending Dublin City University in the next academic year, as staff or student, but have made a significant contribution to the development of the society and its members.

   1. Whether an individual is eligible for Honorary Membership shall be decided by the rest of the membership by way of a majority vote at a General Meeting.
   2. Honorary Members are entitled to the same rights and must adhere to the same responsibilities of normal members.
