

Saint Dominic, also known as Dominic de Guzmán, was a Spaniard who became a priest and later the founder of the Order of Friars Preachers – The Dominicans. The religious order that he founded changed the Church and Europe with it. A gifted preacher, Dominic was a man of great charisma and a group of men formed around him. Together, they worked to reform the Catholic Church from within. The order devoted itself to prayer, study and witnessing to the Faith in a world that had largely rejected it. Throughout the centuries, the Order's purpose has remained the same and it continues the legacy of its heroic founder.

St Dominic will be the patron saint of our new society in DCU and we take his name for our own in order to live by his example.
